

Porridge

Witness

Adam Reese is a 29 year old prisoner at Green Hill serving 2 years for receiving stolen goods. Adam was low on the gang's hierarchy and mitigated his sentence by testifying against the ringleaders. Adam Reese is not his name.

Other Characters

- Crozier is the Daddy of Angel Wing. He manages prisoner's problems, and is the one to turn to for passing information or contraband, as well as supplying muscle.
- Custodial Manager Price is the harried prison warden, trying to balance prisoner and officer welfare against a shrinking budget imposed by corporate masters.
- Senior Prison Officer Barrack manages shifts and knows where prisoners are at all times, as well as the locations of dead drops and who's using them.
- Ricks is a small fish in the prison, just trying to keep his head down — something he's learned to do after a difficult first year in prison. He manages the workshop.

Location and Era

Green Hill is a Victorian gaol refurbished by Tesseract Securities as a minimal security modern private prison. It is almost at double recommended occupancy.

Other Locations

- The Workshop is where prisoners dismantle old electrical equipment for recycling. All tools must be accounted for at the end of the day.

- The Greenhouse is a coveted detail. It's quiet and not overlooked by any cameras. It smells of earth and growing things.
- The Exercise Yard has several areas which are not covered by cameras.
- The Food Hall, where food meets basic nutrition needs but little else. People cluster together according to racial, political or gang affiliation.
- Reese's Cell is typical. He is the only occupant.
